

Conference Objectives

1. Attendees will receive hands-on training on the use of Assistive Technology devices and software to be utilized by individuals with disabilities.
2. Attendees will learn how to integrate Assistive Technology devices and software to be used by people with disability in their every day lives.
3. Attendees will learn how to customize Assistive Technology devices and software for use by individuals with disabilities.
4. Attendees will network with national distributors and Assistive Technology providers from the State of Louisiana on the use of Assistive Technology devices and software to be used by individuals with disabilities.